

NIFTY OPERATIONS TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED

Metals X Limited advises that it has temporarily suspended underground operations at its Nifty copper mine while it undertakes remedial repairs to the secondary escapeway following a routine inspection.

It is anticipated that these works will take approximately seven days to complete and the mine will be fully operational by the middle of next week.

A further update will be provided once mining recommences.

ENQUIRIES

Warren Hallam
Managing Director
e: warren.hallam@metalsx.com.au

Steve Robinson
Executive Director
e: steve.robinson@metalsx.com.au